On the trail of the UNESCO Cultural & Natural Heritage in Upper Austria

Only 20 Regions in the world have achieved the title UNESCO World Heritage & Natural Heritage Site. One region, who has been awarded this title, is the area full of history around Dachstein-Salzkammergut. In Hallstatt you can explore the beautiful landscape and impressive attractions to the 'white gold' – the salt – which characterizes this region. The European Capital of Culture Bad Ischl-Salzkammergut will be awaiting its visitors with numerous event highlights in 2024. You will also get an insight into the cultural programmes. In Steyr and the National Park Region you will explore the historical and cultural highlights of the UNESCO Intangible Cultural Heritage like the Steyrer Kripperl or the Jaw harps at Molln. Enjoy the beautiful old town of Steyr and the impressive natural surroundings on the way to the Salzkammergut region. You will also pass by the Nationalpark Kalkalpen, a UNESCO World Natural Site, which could also be explored by your clients on guided tours. We are looking forward to show you our amazing landscape and the cultural variety of Upper Austria on this tour.
